

LORETTA RAIDER NAMED TO PENNSYLVANIA ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF THE U.S. GLOBAL LEADERSHIP COALITION

March 1, 2016

WIL of Greater Philadelphia congratulates our president, Loretta Raider, for her appointment as a member of the Pennsylvania Advisory Committee of the U.S. Global Leadership Coalition (USGLC).

USGLC is an influential network of over 400 businesses and NGOs; national security and foreign policy experts; and business, faith-based, and military leaders who are dedicated to highlighting the importance of U.S. engagement abroad. They work in Washington and across the country to educate the American public and policymakers on the importance of investing in diplomacy and development alongside defense in building a strategic, modern foreign policy. National members include the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Abbott, 3M, Boeing, Cargill, Lockheed Martin, Caterpillar, Wal-Mart, World Vision, Catholic Relief Services, Coca-Cola, Save the Children, and CARE.

In Pennsylvania, they are a growing coalition of business, non-profit, military, and faith-based leaders.

Loretta will be serving alongside Pennsylvania leaders like the Hon. Robert Borski, Hon. Jim Gerlach, Hon. Marjorie Margolies, Rear Adm. Joe Sestak, Josh Shapiro. The USGLC National Advisory Council includes an impressive list of bipartisan leaders such as Madeleine Albright and Condoleeza Rice, in addition to corporate and nonprofit coalition members.

With Loretta's experience and leadership skills we know that she will be a valuable addition to this organization.
